Lisbon, May 12, N. S.

ON the 3d Inſtant arrived here by the Packet Boat from England, a Cabinet Courier from Vienna, with a Letter to the King of Portugal from the Emperour, deſiring his Majeſty would be pleaſed to ſend forthwith the Portugueſe Cardinals to Rome, in order to aſſiſt at the Election of a Pope. Upon which they were directed to get ready for their Departure by the 6th; the Cavallo Branco, a Portugueſe Man of War of 60 Guns, was fitted out, and the two Cardinals with their Retinues imbarking, they were under Sail the 8th. The King himſelf being pleaſed to go on board with them, the Royal Standard was hoiſted, and his Majeſty accompanied them over the Bar. The Winds have been ſo very favourable to them ſince their Departure, that 'tis reckoned they may have a ſhort Paſſage. Upon the firſt News of the late Pope's Deceaſe, this Court went into Mourning for a Month; and when that expires, they will go into Mourning for the ſame Term, for the late Queen of Denmark.

Venice, May 23, N. S. On the 18th Inſtant came hither the Prince and Princeſs of Modena, and as they had taken and furniſhed a large Houſe upon the Great Canal, the ſame the Electoreſs of Bavaria formerly lived in here, and had brought 70 or 80 Perſons with them, it was thought their Highneſſes would have continued here ſome Time; but they go away again To-Morrow. The Princeſs goes directly to Modena; but the Prince ſtops ſomewhere ſhort of that Place for a few Days.

Copenhagen, May 31. N. S. On the 29th Inſtant the King of Denmark arrived here from Fredericksbourg to review the Regiment of Grenadiers, and dined at Roſenbourg, from whence he went to Fredericksberg; where Yeſterday his Majeſty put the Crown on the Dutcheſs of Sleſwick's Head, and declared her Queen, in the Preſence of all the foreign Miniſters and ſeveral Perſons of the Court, who were carried into an inner Room where that Ceremony was performed: All the foreign Miniſters, and Chief Perſons of Quality, have made their Compliments to the Queen on this Occaſion. His Majeſty with the Queen and Prince Royal went this Morning from thence for Fredericksbourg, where they deſign to ſtay ſome time.

Hambourg, May 31. The laſt Advices from Riga relate, that the Czar propoſed to leave that Place Yeſterday, or To-Day; but it was thought he would return directly to Petersbourg, inſtead of going to Revel: There was no further Talk of his making the Campaign in Perſon, or of his Fleet's putting to Sea, ſince Sir John Norris's Arrival in the Baltick; and though his Fleet of Gallies was at Helſingvos, yet it was believed he would make no Attempt towards the Gulph of Bothnia, becauſe it would expoſe the Body of Foot which are on board, and are his beſt Troops, to be intercepted, if they ſhould venture to croſs the open Gulph to Sweden.

Hague, June 6. Six Eaſt-India Ships, which left Batavia on the 30th of October laſt, are ſafely entred into ſeveral Ports of this Country.

Paris, June 7. In an Aſſembly of the Sorbonne held on the 4th Inſtant, five Lettres de Cachet were produced, for excluding as many of their Doctors from their future Aſſemblies, viz. the Abbots Quinault, Deſmoulins, Bouchar, Eudes, and Damoreau, who have always been Enemies to the late Pope's Conſtitution; whereupon the Faculty having deliberated, came to a Reſolution to make a Repreſentation to the King on that Account, and in the mean time to forbear the Examination of the Biſhop of Soiſſons's Paſtoral Letter which had been communicated to them. The Abbot Petit Pied, Author of a Pamphlet againſt the ſaid Biſhop of Soiſſons, which is handed about here privately, has abſconded; and a Lettre de Cachet is made out againſt him. The Abbot de Lionne, Son to the Miniſter of State of that Name, died on the 5th Inſtant, by his Death ſeveral Benefices are become vacant; and the Abbot de St. Albin, who was his Coadjutor to the Priory of St. Martin, ſucceeds him in that Benefice which is worth 40000 Livres per Annum. The States of Burgundy have granted the King a Free-Gift of 900000 Livres, whereof they pay 750000 in Specie, and the reſt in Bank Notes. M. de Morville, one of the French Plenipotentiaries for the enſuing Congreſs at Cambray, ſets out on the 9th Inſtant for that Place; his Colleague M. de St. Conteſt, who came hither laſt Week, will remain here till the Congreſs opens. It is ſaid that M. de Breteuil, Intendant of Limoges, and Brother to the Chevalier de Breteuil, who was killed in a Rencounter on the 31ſt paſt, will go Ambaſſadour to the Hague in M. de Morville's room. It is adviſed from Languedoc, that the Intendant of that Province had cauſed ſeveral Perſons to be taken up, for having ſpread falſe Reports of the Plague's being got on this Side the Rhone.
